

TST April 22 Meeting notes

Welcome – meeting opened by Cindy Donovan, President at 9:45 AM.

Volunteer for Wagon Master – no volunteers

Described responsibilities, set up trips, 8 per year, April/November set with building access, September is annual meeting/election at Lively Lady, which leaves five months needing volunteers. Two couples can share responsibility, just pick one month, location, date, your choice.

May outing – Cummins Ferry has new owners.

- Road narrow, downhill, no cell service, all pull through sites, weak wi-fi
- Bourbon tours – somewhat expensive, able to taste, designated driver
- Bardstown Dinner Train $48 per person
- Music Friday & Saturday nights at campground
- Must know by Monday AM 4/24 if going, tell Fuzzy

Chuck Marshall, Treasurer takes registrations and dues, can take dues anytime during year.

Key Lewis – Glamarama – June in Greenville Ohio,

- Historically held in Elkhart Indiana
- Volunteers needed, best jobs parking or golf carts, three-hour shifts
- $250 basic fee – dry area – can use generator
- $50 30 amp w/water
- $100 30 amp full hook up
- $75 upgrade 50 amp w/water
- $25 – Honey wagon pump out
- Live bands 3 night
- Wednesday – card bingo
- Crafts 6
- Vendors – 12
- Seminars – 11
- Food Trucks – 5
- $15 Ladies luncheon
- Bus - $25 for Air Force museum & Darke County Museum/Pioneer Village
- Local attractions:
 - Neil Armstrong Museum
 - Airstream Factory

June Rally – site on Ohio River bank, beautiful just getting opened – 100 sites with full hookups, buildings not built yet

Cindy – doesn't use Facebook, please email, call or text her if there is anything she needs to be aware of.
Please use website – tristatetraveliers.com

Mark – doing fantastic job keeping everything updated with multiple ways to communicate

Roster – updating, will send out in email as no personal information on website.

Website is hosted by FMCA

Jeff Rice made a motion to reimburse Mark for domains and it was seconded and unanimously approved.

Today – Natural Springs offering bingo on Saturday in the Lodge, afternoon or evening, welcome to participate

Bob Tucker – National Director – Gillette, WY meeting

Possible changes to bylaws, corrections, name or logo change

Lois Tucker – might know where veterans can camp for free, will update

Tony Desorbo – we must get someone to take on Wagon master. Look at fairgrounds, no pools but hook ups and building.

Bob Tucker moved to adjourn and Mark Griffith seconded motion, meeting adjourned at 10:20 AM.